

MIAMI GOLF PRO NAMED TOP 50 GOLF TEACHER BY US KIDS GOLF

Coral Gables, Florida – February 8, 2015

U.S. Kids Golf, the leading international manufacturer of golf clubs and equipment for kids, announced their U.S. Kids Top 50 Teachers at The PGA Merchandise Show in Orlando, Florida on January 21, 2015. PGA Pro John Pallot of Coral Gables was named as a TOP 50 Teacher in the national competition. "I am truly honored to be named by US KIDS as among their TOP 50 Teachers because youth instruction is a significant part of my academy's curriculum" said Pallot. Since 2004, U.S. Kids Golf has honored golf's best teachers with the Top 50 Kids Teacher Award. Award recipients, who are selected from among 500 public, private, resort and municipal course teachers, are chosen based on their contributions to junior golf, including: time devoted to teaching young golfers; innovation, creativity and fun in their programs; parental involvement; and overall effort to grow the game.

Pallot, founder of The John Pallot Golf Academy and a former collegiate stand out for the University of Miami (FL), has devoted the past 29 years to teaching and continuing his own golf education with golf's great instructors, including: Butch Harmon, PGA Hall of Fame member Bob Toski, Martin Hall, Peter Kostis, Jim McLean, and John Elliot. Twice recognized as the Florida Southern Chapter PGA Teacher of the Year and twice named to Golf Digest's Best Teachers in Florida, Pallot can still play a little bit too, winning the Senior Southern Chapter PGA Championship in 2014.

"I began my love affair with the game of golf at age 7 and became ranked as the 8th best junior in the United States by the age of 17" said Pallot and adding "If I can use my experiences to foster a curiosity for learning, encourage sportsmanship, and inspire confidence in youngsters then I have accomplished something far more rewarding than my own playing successes."
